

RISE Incubator General Program

RISE is a self-paced, custom-designed incubation program and the second stage after completing the Roseview BASE Program. The program is sharply focussed on meeting the specific needs of the entrepreneur and the business being launched – we do not believe that one size fits all.

Cost of the Program:

CAD $1,000/per month for one participant
$250/per month for each additional participant

Includes 5 hours/month of mentorship

Additional mentoring available on a fee for service basis if requested

Program Acceptance:

- Successful completion (Graduation) from Roseview's BASE Program or demonstrated knowledge of the Canadian business ecosystem
- Demonstrated business experience in a leadership role
- A supportable idea and opportunity
- Draft of business plan
- Sufficient capital to sustain business through to launch
- English level proficiency

Up to 5 cohorts
in-person

Key Takeaways:

- Incubator Program is delivered by a variety of subject matter experts, business executives and professional service providers
- Access to business executives and coaches. Additional consultation work will be available if contracted by the Founder.
- For those requiring language assistance, English as a second language (ESL) tutoring will be available
- Office space for the length of the program Commercial address in the Waterloo Region, Canada for the length of the program

Location: In-house
incubator Waterloo
Region or virtual during Covid-19 restrictions

Industry Partners:

